

Sample Trainer Bio: Spanish Language in Spain

Trainer's Profile:

This trainer has a Bachelor's degree in Humanities from Manuel de Cabanyes, a Master's degree in teaching Spanish as a foreign language from the University Rovira I Virgili as well as a Master's degree in Advanced Spanish and American Hispanic Literature, from the University of Barcelona.

The trainer is a native Spanish and Catalan speaker and has a high intermediate level in English and a basic level in German, Portuguese, and French.

The trainer has experience teaching both adults and children in groups (about 15 students per group) and 1:1 settings. The facilitator has taught all levels, from beginners to advanced Spanish-speakers.

The trainer is known for adapting teaching methodology to meet student's needs, and if applicable, feels as though a combination of methods is best.

The instructor maintains an open line of communication with students and feels as though teaching is a very important role.
